Anti-Ragging Activity Report: 2018-2019

- A committee against ragging was established to monitor any behavior that could be construed as ragging.
- On August 22, 2018, the anti-ragging committee met to discuss potential activities the committee could embark on throughout the academic year and to examine the actions taken the year before.
- Members of the anti-ragging committee, a few representative students, and non-teaching staff members set up an anti-ragging squad to keep an eye on the threat of ragging on college campuses, in students' hostels, and even in classrooms.
- The anti-ragging committee of this college defined the term "anti-ragging," outlined its rules and regulations, and specified what would happen in the event of ragging in accordance with UGC guidelines.
- A prominent directive to uphold a harassment-free campus and a conspicuous reference to the anti-ragging alert were posted on the college website, in online admission brochures and webpage, in various sections of the campus buildings and dorms, in the common rooms for boys and girls, and in the canteen.
- Posters and banners with strong messages about the college's anti-ragging stance and commitment to a ragging-free campus were put up in several locations on campus, including the canteen and hostels.
- The college has placed anti-ragging compliance boxes across the campus, hostels, and college canteen. These boxes convey a clear statement about the college's anti-ragging policy and commitment to upholding a ragging-free campus.
- Each student filled out an anti-ragging affidavit and an undertaking promising to uphold the policy and take appropriate action, such as filing a complaint in the event of ragging.
- In order to monitor any incidents that might be considered ragging or other immoral behaviors, CCTV cameras have been placed at strategic locations throughout the campus.
- The anti-ragging committee members engage in counseling sessions and regular meetings with the pupils.
- Drives for awareness were developed to spread the institution's anti-ragging stance. Many competitions were held to raise awareness among students to sensitize the young minds on different facets of ragging, including essay writing, slogan writing, extempore, and poster creation on themes linked to ragging and anti-ragging.
- No complaints were raised during the academic year 2018-2019

Minutes of the Meeting held on 10.11.2022

The Presiding Officer Smt. Sukti Chaudhuri explained briefly the role and functions of Internal Complaint Committee. She also discussed the procedure of investigation to be conducted (if needed), to the newly nominated members especially the student representatives. Complaints of sexual harassment may be lodged with the committee and appropriate disciplinary action would be initiated by the members in accordance to the University Grants Commission (Prevention, prohibition and redressal of sexual harassment of women employees and students in higher educational institution) Regulations, 2015. She pointed out that this cell aims at sensitizing the students and staff to work diligently to prevent sexual harassment in the college campus. It was unanimously decided that the thrust area of sensitization should be the newly admitted first year students. Breaking out of a school discipline they are entering a whole new environment at the college campus. It was also felt by all the members present, that they should be approached in small groups instead of large number. It was resolved that the platform of different departmental celebrations would be used for this purpose. All the Head of the Departments would be requested to inform the Presiding Officer about their upcoming events.
